Title and year of origin of the work artist

Remember the info about the paintings, as soon as night falls you have to be ready to steal the one requested!

Le cheval à la lune (1943)

Marc Chagall

This little horse was sold on 27 February 2019 for $497'976!

artwork_02

Self-portrait as a fisherman (1835)

Katsushika Hokusai

A classic Japanese woodblock print. Should be easy to sell for $5'000.

artwork_03

The penitent Mary Madgalene (1485)

Titian

Titian created numerous versions of the penitent Mary Magdalene - this one is worth a whopping $330'000.

artwork_04

Dada composition (1920)

Sophie Taeuber-Arp

As early as 1915 Taeuber painted completely no representational pictures. Zurich has always been an expensive place - easily $25'000 or more!

artwork_05

Summer theatre (1819)

Alma del Banco

Great picture, tragic story of the artist behind it - we should leave the painting...

Get Out While You Can (?)

Banksy

32'000$ in the webshop - Would Banksy have wanted that? Or is he even behind it himself?

artwork_07

Monkey (1901)

Edward Hopper

A small drawing of Hopper - pen on paper - or: 13'000$ in my checkbook!
